

Proclamation

For over three generations, Architects Hawai'i Ltd. has been instrumental in designing some of Hawai'i's most visible and celebrated commercial buildings, homes, hospitals, and resorts. From its humble beginnings 60 years ago in a renovated garage behind founder Cyril Lemmon's Waikiki home, Architects Hawai'i Ltd. has grown to become one of the most prestigious architectural firms in our Aloha State.

Architects Hawai'i's projects include the State Capitol building, John A. Burns Medical School in Kaka'ako, American Savings Bank Tower in Downtown Honolulu, Waikiki Gateway, and Pearl Harbor Memorial, and Ko'Olina Marriott Timeshare. They have branched out internationally with projects such as the Kameda Medical Center "K-Tower" in Japan.

Presently, Architects Hawai'i Ltd. is contributing to Hawai'i's aesthetic appeal with a wide range of projects that include Honolulu's "Keiki Zoo: Our Amazing Animals", Center of Waikiki project, Watermark in Honolulu, the Navy's new Hawai'i Regional Security Operations Center, and the Pacific Aviation Museum in Pearl Harbor.

With a theme of "The Difference is Design," Architects Hawai'i Ltd. celebrates their 60th anniversary of being an important part of Hawai'i's architectural history.

THEREFORE, I, LINDA LINGLE, Governor of the State of Hawai'i and I, JAMES R. "DUKE" AIONA, JR., Lieutenant Governor, do hereby proclaim the sixteenth day of June, 2006 as in Hawai'i and we look forward enjoying the firm's future design contributions to state of Hawai'i.

ARCHITECTS HAWAI`I DAY

DONE at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this eighth day of June, two thousand six.

Linda Lingle
Governor, State of Hawai'i

James R. "Duke" Aiona, Jr.
